

PRESS RELEASE

JEDOX AND FINCONS GROUP JOIN FORCES TO PROPEL ENTERPRISE PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

Empowering Global Businesses with Adaptable Planning and Performance Management

Freiburg – Milan, November 8, 2023 — Jedox, the world’s most adaptable planning and performance management platform, and Fincons Group, a leading international IT business consulting and system integration firm, have formed a strategic partnership. This collaboration will bring innovative solutions within reach for finance teams in Italy, Switzerland, France, Germany, Belgium, the United Kingdom and the United States, propelling profitable growth across these regions.

The partnership leverages Fincons Group’s extensive experience in delivering digital transformation solutions for financial planning across various industries and the Jedox enterprise performance management (EPM) platform, which enables businesses to simplify their planning, budgeting, reporting and analysis processes. The platform empowers finance teams to model any scenario through multidimensional analysis, integrate data from any source and simplify cross-organizational plans across all business systems.

By combining the Jedox platform with Fincons’ delivery services, businesses can improve their performance, agility and profitability by aligning their financial and operational plans, monitoring relevant KPIs, and gaining actionable insights from real-time data. The two companies boost efficiency and empower enterprises worldwide with:

- Adaptability: Achieve quick time-to-value through efficient implementation that supports software adoption, minimizing learning curves and enhancing efficiency. Plan for any business purpose, any environment, and any situation. Adapt easily to changing infrastructure and expanding data sources with custom or pre-built Best Practice Accelerator models that offer expert guidance.

- Simplification: Jedox delivers cross-organizational, collaborative, and straightforward planning for even the most complex businesses through Excel-friendly tools, practical artificial intelligence (AI), and other advanced technologies. With its Excel similarity and Jedox Add-in for Excel 365, Jedox is an easy-to-use solution.
- Integration: Jedox integrates data from any source and any business system (CRM, HCM, ERP, etc.), enabling enterprises to seamlessly consolidate and analyze real-time data within a centralized platform. Low-code/no-code integration requires fewer technical resources to set up and maintain. Add convenience and gain efficiency by unifying input across the organization.

Fincons Group and Jedox share a common vision of empowering the Office of Finance with easy-to-use and scalable solutions that adapt to changing market conditions and business needs. Together, they aim to provide customers with end-to-end EPM services spanning strategy definition, a solution design and roadmap, implementation and ongoing support.

“We are excited to partner with Jedox, a recognized leader in the EPM market, and to offer our customers a cutting-edge solution that can transform their planning and analytics capabilities. We believe that Jedox’s cloud-native platform, combined with our deep industry knowledge and delivery excellence, will create significant value for clients and help them achieve their business goals,” said Francesco Moretti, Group Deputy CEO and CEO International of Fincons Group.

“Organizations need future-proof planning, budgeting, forecasting, and analysis solutions that mirror the unique contours of their business. We are thrilled to partner with Fincons Group to deliver adaptable planning for more finance teams worldwide,” said Florian Winterstein, CEO of Jedox. “Digital transformation requires adaptable technology and expertise. Fincons Group’s track record of successful EPM projects combined with the Jedox platform will empower businesses to react quickly to changes and plan for the future with confidence.”
